DATE PREPARED 15 January 1951

1. On 20 November 1950, a high-echelon headquarters was observed to be located in the Sofien Krankenhaus (hospital) on Humboldtstrasse, Weimar (M 51/J 57). (1)
There were many officers.

2. The Panzer Kaserne on Jenaer Strasse quartered 150 to 200 troops, most of them were recruits. The troops allegedly belonged to the military post guard units. (2)

3. The Polizei Kaserne on Rosenthalstrasse was occupied by 50 to 80 men and houses a repair shop and a service station. The motor vehicles in the garages of this installation allegedly belonged to the kommandatura or the SCC. (3)

4. Between 21 and 30 November 1950, the Flak Kaserne on Ettersburgerstrasse still quartered a unit of about 1,200 troops, wearing red-bordered black epaulets, some with artillery insignia. Eight-man gun crews practiced with four 76.2-mm guns in the barracks yard on 22 November. Trucks entered the installation, hauling a load of straw. Sedan was parked in front of the barracks gate on 24 November. Truck occupied by about 30 soldiers, left the billeting area toward Weimar on 29 November. There was no training activity in the billeting area, except for intensive rifle and machine gun fire from the target range. Four 76.2-mm AA guns were still emplaced on Ettersberg. (3)

5. The eastern section of the Tannenberg Kaserne was occupied by only a unit of 100 to 120 men wearing red-bordered black epaulets. Occasionally, up to 800 troops of all branches of service were assembled in this billeting area and,

The western section of the Tannenberg Kaserne was occupied by Volkspolizei units totaling about 700 police. (3)

6. The eastern section of the Luetzendorf Kaserne was occupied by artillery units totaling about 400 men, half of whom were recruits. Training activity was observed in the barracks yard. Four trucks [redacted] 25X1
- [redacted] entered the billeting area on 29 November, each carrying about 20 soldiers. The gun emplacement at the gasworks has been improved. Positions for two more guns and a crew shelter, 25x8 meters, have been constructed. The shelter was built into the ground up to about two thirds of its height and was covered with a layer of earth about one meter thick. Fifty to sixty soldiers were accommodated there on 28 November. Truck [redacted] was parked at the emplacement on the same day. The central section of the Luetzendorf Kaserne quartered a unit of about 750 men, including about 200 recruits. Some of the troops observed wore signal insignia. Trucks [redacted] carrying about 20 soldiers and equipment, entered the billeting area from the direction of Ettersburg (C 52/J 47) on 22 November. 25X1

7. The Mueller Kaserne still quartered a signal unit of about 400 men. Telephone equipment, but no radio equipment, was observed with the unit. Radio truck [redacted] with a charging unit was occasionally parked in the billeting area. Sixty-five fully equipped soldiers, led by two officers, marched from the installation to the Sofien Krankenhaus on 23 November. Trucks [redacted] were loaded with signal equipment in the barracks yard on the same day. Several small groups of soldiers were observed practicing the construction of overhead and surface telephone lines in Weibicht forest on 20 November.
